OLD BUSINESS:

1. Roads. Jarod Harriman mentioned two road issues the dip on Hollis Rd and a hole on Smith Rd. It looks maybe a woodchuck issue. Dayton Sand & Gravel will patch the dip on Hollis Rd later this week. Road Commissioner will be contacted for the issue on Smith Rd.
2. Marijuana Ordinance. A final copy will be signed and posted soon.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Fire Commission. The Commission provided informational reporting to the Selectmen.
2. GMFR Ambulance Fee schedule. The Selectmen reviewed and signed the new ambulance fee schedule recommended by the Fire Commission.

PUBLIC FORUM:

Angela Cushman, Treasurer, provided year to date reporting for waste management. The reporting shows tipping fees decreasing as result of the two barrel limit that was implemented last December. Darren Adams wondered if the contractor could be asked to place barrels back instead of throwing to the ground. His barrel has been destroyed.

Henry Ingwersen, who is running for State Representative House District 10, stopped in to introduce himself to the Selectmen and those in attendance.
